

173d Airborne Brigade Association Foundation

2018 Scholarship Application

The Scholarship Fund is in memory of our fallen comrades who have died in Vietnam, Iraq, and Afghanistan.

The 173d Airborne Brigade Association Foundation Scholarship Committee seeks to award scholarships to applicants displaying the potential to earn a degree either technical or university. The committee evaluates each applicant in the three areas outlined below.

PART I- PERSONAL INFORMATION

Please provide all the requested information to fully complete your personal profile.

PART II- ESSAY

There is no right or wrong answer to the questions. Please answer all four questions.

PART III- ACADEMIC EVALUATION

Please submit your application electronically along with an unsealed copy of all transcripts and explanation of any gaps. Failure to submit your grades results in an automatic dismissal of the application. If you wish to explain any low marks concerning grades or conduct, please feel free to do so.

You are encouraged to highlight any extracurricular activities that demonstrate your leadership potential and the impact of the service you may have provided to your community and/or civic or professional organizations of interest.

PART IV- PHOTO

A mandatory high resolution recent individual photo and a release agreement (see last page) for its use must be included in application for it to be complete, or a signed statement from applicant or parent or guardian that they decline to submit same for personal or religious reasons.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION & MAILING ADDRESS

Complete instructions are on the last page of the application form.
